Jhaimie S. Dye

RYE — Jhaimie S. Dye, 20, of Rye died in a car accident Saturday, June 23, 2007, in Rye.

Born Nov. 19, 1986, in Portsmouth, he was the son of Susan K. Anderson of Rye and John R. Dye of Portsmouth.

Jhaimie was a graduate of Portsmouth High School, Class of 2005, completed a postgraduate year at Bridgton Academy in Bridgton, Maine, and was an undergraduate at Suffolk University in Boston, Mass.

Jhaimie grew up on the shores of Wallis Sands and the foothills and peaks of the White Mountains. As a young man and college student in Boston, he was enjoying all that city life offered.

In addition to his parents, he is survived by his stepfather, David M. Anderson; sister, Yvette Buyince; maternal grandparents Dr. James and Lyn Beattie of Rye; paternal grandparents Sylvester and Althea Dye of Portsmouth; uncles and aunts; many cousins; and friends. He will always be remembered by his girlfriend, Lisa Gibson, of Brentwood.

WE REMEMBER: A lover of sports and a tremendous athlete, Jhaimie was an amazing soccer player, an extreme snowboarder and avid skimboarder. Jhaimie had an infectious laugh and million-dollar smile, and possessed the rare quality of lighting up a room and making all who knew him feel important and cared for. He had a way with children, peers and his elders, showing his strength and integrity as a young man.

SERVICES: Visiting hours will be held from 6 to 8 p.m. Wednesday at the J. Verne Wood Funeral Home - Buckminster Chapel, 84 Broad St., Portsmouth. A memorial service will be held at 2:30 p.m. Friday at the Rye Congregational Church, 580 Washington Road, Rye. In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to the Jhaimie S. Dye Soccer Scholarship Fund, c/o 1126 Ocean Blvd., Rye, NH 03870.
