RYE — A 20-year-old Rye man was killed in a single-car accident on Ocean Boulevard early Saturday morning.

In a press release, police said Jhamie Dye of 13 Mountain View Terr. was pronounced dead at the scene after emergency personnel discovered his mini-van on rocks 25 feet off the road north of Wallis Sands State Park just before 6 a.m.

Dye was removed by Rye firefighters using the Jaws of Life power rescue tool.

Officials are still investigating the cause of the crash, and the cause of death was not released.

Police said nothing has been ruled out at this time:

Dye's 2001 Chrysler Town and Country was the only vehicle reported to be involved in the crash and he was the sole occupant. Police think he was driving at the time of the crash.

A dispatcher on duty Saturday afternoon said no additional information would be released for a couple of days, but the department is asking anyone with information to call 603-964-5522.
